City Announces Construction of Community Center

During a press conference on Tuesday, city council chairperson Samantha Davies announced plans for the construction of a community center on Chesterton Avenue. The new facility will feature a large event hall, three classrooms, and a conference room. It will also include an art studio and gallery area. The council felt that such facilities would really improve the quality of life in the city, Davies said. "We will now have a place to hold community events and conduct special courses, such as art classes." The city council is looking for a company to lead the construction. It will accept proposals from firms in the state starting on April 12. The project is scheduled to start on May 1 and is estimated to last until the end of September. Those interested in bidding on the construction project may contact the project manager, Daniel Lewis, at danlew@summerlandcity.org for information on submitting a proposal and application. For additional information on the plans and features for the new facility, please visit www.summerlandcitycouncil.org/communitycenter.
